

Tradewinds

"This is not primarily the place where we have to be;
it is the place where we are.
This is not our prison but our home;
it is the road we must walk, and the walking of it is called life.
Because we will walk it only once, then how important it is that we should walk it with some purpose that we call our own."

SCIOTO COUNTY JOINT VOCATIONAL SCHOOL

"Now, you are here today, but easily you might just go away.
Cause we live in a time when paintings have no color,
words don't rhyme.
And that's why I traveled far, cause I come so together where you are."

Mr. Frank Taylor, Superintendent

Mr. B. J. Marshall, Clerk

The Scioto County Joint Vocational School opened August 31, 1971, with an enrollment of 561 and a faculty and staff of 40. By September 6, 1972, the enrollment had increased to 829 and the faculty and staff to 71. The initial success of this venture is due to the vision and dedication of four men: Frank Taylor, Tom Schulte, B. J. Marshall, and Arnold McCoy. The 1973 yearbook staff would like to say, "Well done" and "Right on!"

Students will try any means to attend Vo-Tech!

Forgot her combination? Again?

Wake up Pam, we have a deadline to meet!

We, the editors, are proud to have been selected to lead in the publication of the school's first yearbook. It has been quite a learning process. As we have no study halls, work primarily had to be done after school plus what we could squeeze in at breaks and lunchtime. This, as you can imagine, required extra effort by all staff members, and especially Mrs. Rawlings, Advisor. To the administration and staff we say thanks for your patience.
