Administrative Office

Miss Nancy Daily, Student-Secretary

Mr. Tom Schulte, Director

Miss Pam Matheny, Secretary

Mrs. Sandra Crace, Secretary

We thought that Mr. Schulte was a great leader and certainly everything a director should be, and more. It would be fortunate, indeed, if all schools had the benefit of a leader as knowledgeable and understanding as Mr. Schulte is.

The success of our administrative office could also be attributed to the invaluable service of Mr. Schulte's secretaries.

Guidance Personnel

Mrs. Lena Rowe, Guidance Secretary

Hagar L. Spurlock, Director of Guidance

Tom Riser, Placement Coordinator

Richard Martin, Guidance Counselor

Guidance, understanding, and a comforting haven were always available in our guidance department. The assistance given by the personnel to the students was priceless, and everyone knew that the school certainly could not function without the help of such a fine staff.

We, the editors, along with the yearbook staff, put a lot of time and effort into this edition of our yearbook. It was all worthwhile, though, and I don't think any of us would have traded our experiences with the 1974 yearbook for anything.

We were very honored to be the co-editors of the Tradewinds, but we could not have succeeded without the patience and cooperation of the students, faculty, and staff. Special recognition and thanks must be given to Mrs. Foti; she was a wonderful advisor as well as a beautiful person.

Co-Editors of the 1974 Tradewinds
